

On Christmas morning
your stocking is filled with presents

Friends and family visit each other

The house and table is decorated for a special lunch

We pull crackers that bang at the table

We can wear the hats
inside the crackers

We all sit together for a big lunch with our family

We take turns to give each other presents